

National Investigation Agency
Ministry of Home Affairs, Govt. of India

Charges framed in the Nagpada ISIS Case by the Special NIA Court, Mumbai

On 31st July, 2018, the NIA Special Court, Mumbai has framed charges in Case No. RC 04/2016/NIA/ Mum (Nagpada ISIS Case) against arrested and chargesheeted accused Arshi Qureshi.

2. NIA had registered this case u/s 120B of IPC read with Secs. 10, 13, 38 of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act. The case relates to the indoctrination of Ashfak Majid son of the complainant and his associates into extreme Jihadi ideology by a group of likeminded youths from Kasaragod district of Kerala and some members of the Islamic Research Foundation, Mumbai who motivated and radicalized Ashfak and his associates to join ISIS, a proscribed terrorist organisation.
3. Investigation had revealed that the accused Arshi Qureshi was involved in unlawful activities and spreading disaffection against India. He provided support to the proscribed terrorist organization ISIS by way of furthering its activities to Ashfak Majid and a group of missing youths of Kerala and motivated and radicalized them to join ISIS.
4. NIA Special Court has framed charges against the aforesaid accused u/s 13 & 39 of UA (P) Act.
